

I am opposed to allowing cell phone use on flights. Many of us need the time to sleep. It's annoying, even when staying awake and reading or working, to hear someone in close quarters talking on a phone conversation.